Here are some, but not limited to the following reasons why you may want to have a mentor down below:

- 1). The smart, rich, famous, successful and powerful utilize mentors myself included.
- 2). Mentors are already successful, competent, have a proven track record and live or lead by example.
- 3). Mentors possess knowledge, information, wisdom, experience and insights that you may need and/or want not to mention important connections, resources, opportunities, skills or other capabilities that could benefit you.
- 4). Mentors can give you proper guidance and direction that could save you a lot of time, money and effort.
- 5). Mentors can assess your strengths and weaknesses and improve you even more.
- 6). Mentors can help you discover your hidden talents, skills and capabilities.
- 7). Mentors can teach you new things.
- 8). Mentors can inspire, motivate, keep you focused and help you with your discipline.
- 9). You can trust and confide in mentors.
- 10). Mentors can keep your ego in check.
- 11). Mentors can give you support and a shoulder to lean on.

In all, you can learn and benefit from mentors and they can give you positive outcomes and results. In other words, they can improve your life or situation not to mention your success and potential.

As you can see, you may want to obtain a mentor to improve oneself. And yes, I do mentor people for your information. And if you're interested in my guidance, just contact me today.
